

ROME

3 NIGHTS

In the footsteps of Caravaggio

A tour dedicated to art lovers. With a specialized guide we will immerse ourselves in the works of Caravaggio, to get to know his technique and genius. The Eternal City is the ideal setting, a combination of art and immortality.

DAY 1 - START OF THE TOUR

Arrival in Rome, optional transfer from the airport or station to your hotel. Accommodation in a 4 * hotel in the city center. Afternoon at leisure for individual visits, overnight stay.

OPTIONAL* DINNER IN A CHARACTERISTIC RESTAURANT in the ancient Trastevere district. Price: 25€ per person

DAY 2 - CITY CENTER - BORGHESI GALLERY

Breakfast at the hotel, this morning with the guide we will discover the Caravaggio in Renaissance and Baroque Rome. We will admire some works located in three churches not far from each other: the church of San Luigi dei Francesi (Triptych of St. Matthew), the church of St. Mary of the people (The Conversion of St. Paul and the Crucifixion of St. Peter) and the Church of Sant'Agostino (The Madonna of Loreto or of the Pilgrims). The facade of the latter was covered with travertine taken from the Colosseum and it is also possible to admire the work of Raphael (The Prophet Isaiah). Lunch free (not included).

In the afternoon our itinerary continues with the entrance to the Borghese Gallery. Among sculptures, frescoes and various works by other artists such as Pala Baglioni, Portrait of young woman with a Unicorn by Raphael, there are various works by Caravaggio: Young man with fruit basket, Young Sick Bacchus, Madonna and Child with St. Anne, St. Jerome, St. John the Baptist, David with the head of Goliath.

Return Individually to the hotel, overnight stay.

DAY 3 - VATICAN MUSEUMS

Breakfast, morning free for individual visits. After lunch (not included), start of the visit to the Vatican Museums, where various works from the ancient and contemporary ages are collected. Sarcophagi and mosaics share the space with masterpieces by great masters such as Giotto, Michelangelo, Leonardo Da Vinci, Raphael up to Dali, Canova and Matisse. In the midst of so much beauty, the presence of a fragment of moon rock donated to Vatican citizens by former US president Nixon continues to amaze. The tour ends in the Sistine Chapel where it is possible to admire the famous frescoes of the representation of the Last Judgment. Overnight stay.

OPTIONAL* SUGGESTIVE EVENING EXCURSION TO CASTEL SANT'ANGELO WITH THE "PASSETTO"

Not far from the Vatican stands Castel Sant'Angelo, built by order of the Emperor Hadrian wanting a much larger reproduction of the mausoleum of Augustus. Its intended use changed several times over the centuries, passing from bulwark to prison. The presence of the "Passetto" is singular, a pedestrian passageway that connects the site with the Vatican used by the pope to escape in case of danger. Includes entrance fee, guide. Price: 40€ per person
